Ready to get started?
See how easy it is to create content, exchange ideas, and make your teams productive with kablinc.

New Stars. New Stories. New Worlds to Explore.

kablinc. A single Integrated Collaboration Environment that establishes a core of people, teams, functions, tasks, and content. kablinc takes team collaboration and social networking to the next level.

What's so special about kablinc? It enables Open Source teamwork, so it opens the door to the ultimate in collaboration. It establishes an ever-growing Open Source community that includes you, the experts in social networking and web-based applications. We've laid the groundwork with kablinc and are clearing the way for innovations that are possible only through the genius (and efforts) of the Open Source software community.

Providing best-of breed-solutions is deeply ingrained in our culture. That's never going to change. At the same time, just like all successful cultures, we are evolving to meet the needs of next-generation technologies and users. kablinc enables us all to work together, delivering better solutions to a broader spectrum of users.

Want to try it now, no strings attached? A Java application with the Web 2.0 facilities you want? Download is just Click and Go. No forms, no contact information, no nothing. Then take advantage of full-featured Open Source collaboration solution plus all the new features, functions, and improvements contributed by others like you.

kablinc is licensed under the Common Public Access License (CPAL). We have also deeply intertwined a number of leading Open Source projects into our own innovative code. kablinc leverages: Hibernate, Liferay, Lucene, MySQL, openSUSE, and Tomcat
